A Statement from the OHM BOCES Regarding the Coronavirus and School Closings

March 12, 2020 (New Hartford, N.Y.) – On behalf of the Oneida-Herkimer-Madison BOCES and its 12 component school districts, schools are remaining open at this time as we continue to monitor this fluid situation with the coronavirus (COVID-19).

School districts are working in close collaboration and coordination with state and local health officials and the NYS Education Department to address potential school closings and/or the cancellation of large events. As with any school emergency days, families will be notified through their current communication channels in the event of any closings or cancellations.

The OHM BOCES serves the following component school districts: Brookfield, Clinton, Holland Patent, New Hartford, New York Mills, Oriskany, Remsen, Sauquoit Valley, Utica, Waterville, Westmoreland and Whitesboro.
